1 Pursuant to Civil Local Rules 7-11 and 79-5 and the June 14th Order Re: Evidentiary Hearing on 2 Preliminary Injunction Motion (ECF No. 76) (“Order”), Defendant Activision Blizzard, Inc.
3 (“Activision”) does respectfully move this Court to seal from public disclosure and permit in camera
4 treatment of certain exhibits that appear on Plaintiff Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) and 5 Defendants’ (collectively, the “Parties”) exhibit lists.

6 On June 14, 2023, the Court issued an Order directing the Parties, among other things, to identify 7 “each exhibit each party intends to offer at the evidentiary hearing either through a witness declaration 8 or live testimony,” including “which exhibits are subject to a confidentiality designation and where on 9 the docket the Court can locate a declaration in support of sealing as required by Local Rule 79-5.”
10 Order, at Section A.2. On June 18, 19, 21, 22 and 26, 2023, the Parties exchanged their respective exhibit
11 lists, which identify exhibits that the Parties plan to introduce during the evidentiary hearing.

12 Pursuant to the Court’s Order Following June 21, 2023 Status Conference at ECF 170, Activision
13 is filing this Fourth Amended Administrative Motion, which replaces the Amended Administrative 14 Motion filed at ECF 205, to provide the legal bases for sealing the exhibits that appears on the Parties’
15 exhibit lists.

16 As described in detail herein, many of the exhibits on the Parties’ lists contain highly sensitive 17 and proprietary business information that would injure Activision if made publicly available. The 18 following table describes the highly confidential material found in the exhibits identified in the Parties’
19 exhibit lists and the specific bases supporting sealing of the information. See Civ. L.R. 79-5(c). The 20 proposed sealing reflects Activision’s good-faith efforts to narrowly seek sealing of only that information 21 which is competitively sensitive and contained in internal documents, the public disclosure of which 22 would cause injury to Activision that cannot be avoided through any more restrictive alternative means:

ARGUMENT

I. In Camera* Treatment of the Exhibits Is Warranted Under Ninth Circuit Precedent as They Contain Activision's Confidential Business Information

The above-mentioned exhibits contain competitively sensitive business information and warrant in camera treatment at the evidentiary hearing. In the Ninth Circuit, “[p]arties seeking to seal judicial records relating to motions that are ‘more than tangentially related to the underlying cause of action,’ bear the burden of overcoming the presumption with ‘compelling reasons supported by specific factual findings that outweigh the general history of access and the public policies favoring disclosure.’” Lenovo (United States) Inc. v. IPCOM GmbH & Co., KG, 2022 WL 2313948, at *1 (N.D. Cal. Jun. 28, 2022); see also Kamakana v. City & County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172, 1179 (9th Cir. 2006) (“[T]he court must ‘conscientiously [] balance the competing interests’ of the public and the party who seeks to keep certain judicial records secret.”). Courts in this Circuit regularly find that sealing is warranted where the records or information that are sought to be sealed could be used “as sources of business information

1 that might harm a litigant's competitive standing." Nixon v. Warner Commc'ns, Inc., 435 U.S. 589, 598
 2 (1978); see also In re Elec. Arts, Inc., 298 F. App'x 568, 569 (9th Cir. 2008) (same); Velasco v. Chrysler
 3 Grp. LLC, No. CV 13-08080 DDP (VBK), 2017 WL 445241, at *2 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 30, 2017) (stating 4 that "district courts in this Circuit have sealed records containing 'information about proprietary business 5 operations, a company's business mode or agreements with clients,' [and] 'internal policies and 6 strategies'"') (internal citations omitted).

7 "The Ninth Circuit has explained that 'in general, compelling reasons sufficient to outweigh the 8 public's interest in disclosure and justify sealing court records exist when such court files might have 9 become a vehicle for improper purposes, such as the use of records to . . . release trade secrets.'" Velasco, 10 2017 WL 445241, at *2 (quoting Elec. Arts, 298 F. App'x at 569); see also Elec. Arts, 298 F. App'x at 11 569 ("A 'trade secret may consist of any formula, pattern, device or compilation of information which 12 is used in one's business, and which gives him an opportunity to obtain an advantage over competitors
 13 who do not know or use it.'") (citation omitted). A court has "broad latitude" to grant protective orders 14 to prevent disclosure of "many types of information, including, but not limited to, trade secrets or other 15 confidential research, development, or commercial information." Phillips ex rel. Estates of Byrd v. Gen.
 16 Motors Corp., 307 F.3d 1206, 1211 (9th Cir. 2002).

17 In determining whether a document should be filed under seal, courts consider, among other 18 things, the measures taken to guard the information's secrecy and the value of the information to the 19 business or its competitors. E.g., Phillips ex rel. Estates of Byrd v. Gen. Motors Corp., 307 F.3d 1206, 20 1212 (9th Cir. 2002). Here, Activision seeks in camera treatment of only the exhibits on Defendants'
 21 and the FTC's exhibit lists that reference and reflect, among other things, confidential, proprietary
 22 information relating to Activision's internal decision-making processes, investment decisions, strategic 23 evaluation of forward-looking opportunities, market share analyses, assessment of the competitive 24 landscape, business partnerships, terms of existing confidential agreements, revenue figures and 25 projections, and internal presentations discussing business strategy. The disclosure of this information
 26 could be used to injure Activision if made publicly available.

27 II. In Camera Treatment of the Exhibits Is Necessary to Protect Defendants' Confidential and Proprietary Business Information

1 Activision seeks in camera treatment of the above-mentioned exhibits, which contain
 2 Activision's non-public and highly sensitive information. Examples of such confidential information
 3 include, but are not limited to, Activision's internal decision-making processes, investment decisions, 4 strategic evaluation of forward-looking opportunities, market share analyses, assessment of the 5 competitive landscape, business partnerships, terms of existing confidential agreements, revenue figures
 6 and projections, and internal presentations discussing business strategy. Disclosure of this information
 7 would provide Activision's competitors with private data about Activision's performance and business
 8 strategy, which could harm Activision's competitive standing. See Cont'l Auto. Sys. v. Avanci, LLC, 9 No. 19-cv-02520-LHK, 2019 WL 6612012, at *4 (N.D. Cal. Dec. 5, 2019). As set forth in the supporting 10 Declaration of Page Robinson, Activision actively seeks to maintain the secrecy of the types of 11 confidential information contained in the parties' exhibit lists. Thus, the unsealing of this highly 12 confidential and sensitive information would cause injury to Defendants that cannot be avoided through

14 Finally, Activision provided the FTC with confidential business information cited in the 15 Opposition and supporting materials pursuant to the statutory and regulatory guarantees of 16 confidentiality contained in the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act or the FTC Act. See 15 U.S.C. §§ 18a(h), 46(f), 17 57b-2(b), 57b-2(c); 6 C.F.R. § 4.10(d)-(g). In similar cases, the FTC has acknowledged the need to 18 maintain the confidentiality of a party's confidential business information that has been provided to the 19 FTC via a regulatory request. See, e.g., FTC v. Lockheed Martin Corp., 2022 WL 1446650, at *2 (D.D.C.
 20 Jan. 25, 2022) ("According to the FTC, sealing the complaint is appropriate . . . because the filing 21 includes confidential information submitted . . . pursuant to 'statutory and regulatory guarantees of 22 confidentiality.' . . . The requested sealing covers only confidential information and is, according to the 23 FTC, required by regulation.").

24 III. Conclusion

25 As stated above, compelling reasons justify Activision's request for in camera treatment of the 26 Activision's confidential business information contained in the above-mentioned exhibits. Activision 27 therefore respectfully request that this Court grant its Fourth Amended Administrative Motion. In 28 compliance with Civil Local Rule 79-5(d), redacted and unredacted versions of the Exhibits warranting

1 in camera treatment accompany this Fourth Amended Administrative Motion. In accordance with Civil 2 Local Rule 7-11, Activision has also filed a Proposed Order herewith.
